

Peas of Mind For Kids

Broccoli, carrots, cauliflower and apples take on a whole new look with Peas of Mind Veggie Wedges for kids. These baked, crispy French fries are made from real vegetables. Packed with vitamins and nutrients, one serving is equivalent to $\frac{1}{2}$ your child's daily recommended intake of fruits or vegetables. Hold on, was that apple fries? YES!

Onto new Peas of Pie natural pizza, another home run by Peas of Mind. This pie of deliciousness contains real broccoli, carrots and cauliflower mixed right into the dough (shhh...the kids won't even know!) and has least 50% less fat than leading brands, according to the company. Why are these products just for kids again????

Finally, tired of making lunches they won't eat? Try Puffets, perfectly balanced, all-in-one meals designed for growing kids. Made with organic and natural ingredients, send your little one off to school with any of these six varieties: Nanna's Banana, Carrot Risotto, Black Bean Polenta, Eat Your Greens, Mamma's Pasta and The Dalai Lentil. Gluten-free and dairy-free options are also available. Store locations and more information can be found at: www.peasofmind.com.
